The Young Adult Retreat scheduled for September 14-16 at Nosoca Pines Ranch has been cancelled.

Paul Richardson, director of "The Center for Creative Ministry" on the campus of Union College is coming to Raleigh for a special night of training on Reclaiming Former Members.

This will be a time to share your reconnecting experiences, ask questions, and learn more about how to develop a reconnecting ministry in the church. Church Leaders, Greeters, people with backslidden family or friends and anyone interested in reaching former Adventists should attend. The meeting will be held in the sanctuary Friday, September 14, 2007, @ 7:30 pm.

On September the 16th we will combine both worship services into the 11:00am service as we launch our Capital Campaign for the Family Center.

SCHOOL BOARD SPOTLIGHT

Jeff Echols, School Board Chair - I was raised in a Baptist home, went to Catholic Schools, and became a member of the AME Church as an adult...talk about spiritual confusion! Laini and I were married on August 12, 2000. We began a spiritual journey together. We began reconnecting with the Lord after being away from church for a number of years. The Lord blessed us with Elijah Samuel on January 1, 2002. We moved to Apex in August 2003 when Elijah was hospitalized at UNC Hospital with a severe case of bacterial pneumonia. Thankfully, the Lord brought him through that. I began realizing that many of the things that I had been taught did not add up biblically. So as we looked for a new church home, I began seeking the truth of God's word. The Lord placed a dear friend in my life, David Eye (and his family), and we began studying together. Not long after Laini and I attended the Prophecy Code Seminar at this church. The Lord had revealed the truth to us and we were baptized together on May 21, 2005. I am involved with the Raleigh ACA because I believe that it is important to guide our children in the way Truth. Their salvation depends on it. I spent many years spiritually confused and want to do all I can to ensure that as many children as possible have the opportunity to be educated in the Truth of the Gospel.
