ACA News

SCHOOL BOARD SPOTLIGHT: Audrey Addo, School Board Member at Large. Born and raised in NC on the Crystal Coast., I left NC in my teens and resided in NYC where I attended College and Nursing school. I worked as an RN with children aging from childbirth to adult for 15 years.

I retired from the hospital in 1995 and later returned to work as a school nurse on a part time basis. I met my husband Joseph in NY, who really helped while in nursing school. We have five lovely children, all grown an on their own and nine grand children, 2 of which live in NC.

My spiritual journey began from childhood as a Methodist until I met a very good friend at the hospital where I worked in NY. She invited me to some Adventist tent meetings where God revealed the truth to me. I was baptized at the end of the meetings by Elder Ron Halverson along with one of my sons. Later my two youngest children were baptized. After years of much prayer my husband was baptized as well. I believe this was God's plan. We enjoy studying together and sharing the world of God with family members and whomever we can witness to.

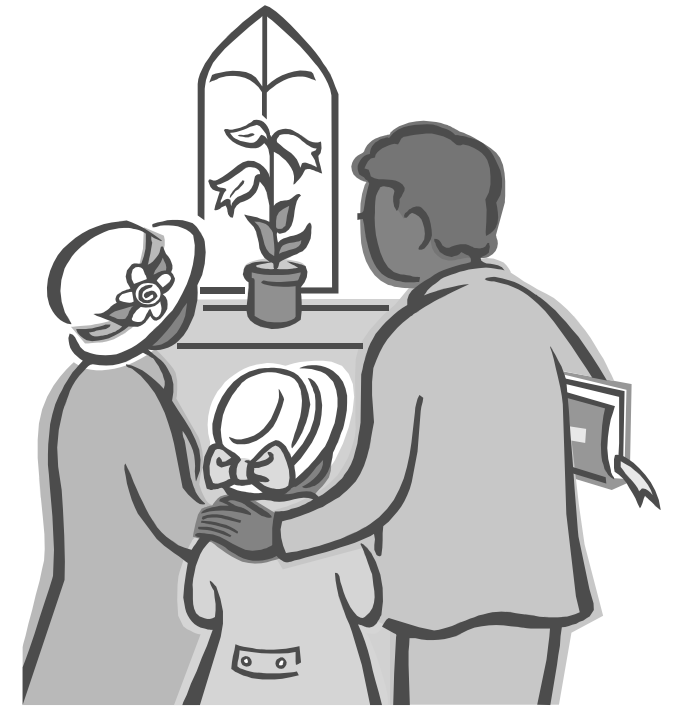

I moved back to NC in 2003, joined the Raleigh Adventist Church and am now residing in Morrisville, NC. I have held many leadership positions in the Adventist Church. To name a few: SS Primary Teacher, SS Superintendent Adult, Choir Director, and began the first VBS in my church in upstate NY. I accepted the position of working with the School Board because I love children and very interested in their well being. I know that a Christian Education is the best for our children. It works in harmony with the home, school and church, preparing learners for citizenship here on earth and in the New Earth to come.

As Miss White mentions in "The Desire of Ages": It is true that children are the most susceptible to the teachings of the gospel; their hearts are open to divine influences, and strong to retain the lessons received. The need to be educated in spiritual things and parents should give them every advantage that that they may form characters after the similitude of the character of Christ.
