News You Can Use

We extend our warmest welcome to Dr. Linda Koh today. Dr. Koh is the Director of Children's Ministries for the General Conference and is here to spend a weekend strengthening, encouraging and equipping our parents and Children's Ministry Leaders.

Church Business Meeting will be held Sunday, March 2nd at 6:00 pm in the sanctuary. Agenda items include church budget approval for 08.

Have you ever thought of being involved in the publishing work of the Seventh-day Adventist Church? It's a ministry that has brought countless souls into the Kingdom. Next Sabbath we will have a special presentation by Lance Morrison from the Carolina Conference that will help us understand more about this important work. Lance will have material available and be on hand to answer your questions.

We are accumulating furniture for the ARC but need space for storage. If you have an empty bay in a garage or other storage space for desks and office furniture that could be used until the ARC opens in June please contact the Pastor.

BUILDING THE BODY OF CHRIST: In an effort to forward the Work of the Kingdom and help Raleigh SDA be successful in its sowing (Outreach) and reaping (Evangelism) ministries, your new Interest Coordinator, Elizabeth Salisbury, needs your help! She asks that anyone who has information on individuals who have expressed an interest in the message of the Gospel, in our church, our programs, whom you have invited to Share Him events, etc., would submit this information to her for inclusion in our new Prospect database. Please include all you know about them. You may reach Elizabeth by email at esalisbury1@nc.rr.com or by phone at (919) 323-9041. Don't hesitate! His coming is near

ACA News

School board Spotlight: Whitney Andrew: I was born in 1978 in Virginia and I am an only child. I was raised in a Baptist church and went to public schools my whole life. I accepted Jesus as a young teenager at an emotionally charged youth retreat and did not really stick with my decision at all. I definitely left the path that was in God's will all through high school and through most of college. My parents prayed consistently for me and as a result I ran into an old friend from high school (Rainey Buscher) and he invited me to church with him in Chapel Hill. I was at a low point in my life and was really looking for something better so I decided to give it a shot! I met another great friend (Darcy Todd- now known as Darcy Griffin) and she invited me to the Net '99 series at the Raleigh church. I went almost every night and was in awe of all the new things I was learning that I had ever heard. I eventually decided to be re-baptized and re-dedicate my life to God. Darcy also introduced me to Lee Andrew. We were good friends right from the start because we had very similar journeys leading us back to God's will. We were married about two years from the day we met (on May 13, 2001). We both believe God led us to each other and kept us together through some early struggles in our relationship in order to bring us both into a closer relationship with Him! We had our boy Caleb on April 25, 2006 and are expecting a little girl sometime very soon (by the time this is printed she may be here).

I believe Adventist Education is so very important for our young people. I received a perfectly adequate education in public schools, but if there had been a stronger Christian influence in my life I do think I would have made better choices and been spared a lot of pain. I know from personal experience that kids will usually go along with what their friends are doing. It stands to reason that if kids are in Adventist schools then they are more likely to have friends with the same values as their families. I know without a doubt that my children will benefit greatly from being raised in a Christian home and attending Adventist schools. When I heard the statistics about how greatly combining these two influences can increase a child's chance of staying close to God and on his path, I knew Lee and I would do whatever it takes to make sure our children would have that advantage in life!

Many thanks to Arnie Jimenez for taking care of our recent Internet wiring needs! Thanks so much for taking care of us at ACA!
