The 4th-6th grade class has been focused on learning to Praise Jesus. Esther Okari, daughter of Pastor and Mrs. Enock Omosa of the Kenya Church developed this beautiful Psalm as a part of a recent Bible assignment:

Lord, fill my heart with Your Presence,
Make me be more like You.
Help me to have wisdom
to tell from wrong and right.

Give me a song to sing
to glorify Your great love and compassion.
Forgive me, dear Lord,
for I need to be cleansed.
Make me Your Disciple.
feed me with the Bread of Life.

Listen to my prayer, O Lord.
Please answer
For I want to be more like You.

One of the greatest privileges as an educator in the Adventist system, is to be able to watch as Jesus settles into the hearts of our young people. We are thankful for the testimony of Jesus we often see in the writing of our students. Recently, Valeria Rodriguez of the 8th grade class wrote about what she thinks it will be like when she stands in the presence of Jesus for the 1st time: "When I see Jesus, I will burst into tears. My teardrops will have in them the image of Jesus when He was on the Cross. I will run to Him. I will fall at His feet because I love Him with my whole heart. I will sing to Him with all of my soul."
